

WORSHIP > RITUALS

What does God want from us? How do we know His will? What is life all about? What gives our lives meaning? We often overcomplicate the answers to these questions. If everything God created is good, then we don't need to separate secular from sacred. To be a good Christian, you don't have to buy only Christian things, go to Christian schools, or get Christian jobs (while all those things may be good, they aren't required). You are uniquely created in the image of God. Do whatever you do, wherever you are, for the glory of God instead of for your own glory. Everything can be an act of worship, not just certain activities during a scheduled time at a certain location. Worship is more than a religious service. Worship is the way you live. Live intentionally and creatively to honor Christ.

Three things can help us wrap our hearts and minds around the fact that all of life is worship:

- 1 Your calling is more than a career.
- 2 God's will is more like a circle than a dot.
- 3 The One we worship is greater than where we worship.

FOR MORE, READ CHAPTER 9 IN THE BOOK: JESUS > RELIGION.

